

Claude Brousseau

Claude is a Class A Teaching Professional member of the PGA. Originally from Montréal, Québec, Canada. He adds an international flair to Kapalua Golf Academy. He received a Master Business Administration (MBA) degree from UQAM in 1988. Claude has received the prestigious award; 2008 Aloha Section PGA Teacher of the year.

He is the only Aloha Section PGA member on the list of “Top Instructor in Hawaii” by Golfing Magazine. He is also a regular writer/ contributor with Golfing Magazine in USA and Inside Golf Magazine in Canada. He was featured in Golf Magazine in April 2007.

Claude has a vast experience of teaching golf. During the past 10 years, he gave over 10,000 golf lessons including private, semi-private, coaching session, playing lesson, half day, one day, two day and three day golf school.

He had the opportunity of taking lessons with many of the “Top 100 Teachers” with Golf Magazine list including; Bob Toski, Mark Woods, Mike Adams, Robert Baker, Chuck Windstead, Martin Hall and Dana Rader. He had short game lessons from Marius Filmalter and Stan Utley.

Claude has a good experience of playing at a high level of competition. He played on mini-tours in South Florida for over 5 years and did Monday’s qualifier rounds for the Doral Open and the Honda Classic.

Regarding the mental aspect of the game, Claude worked with Dr. Rick Jensen and Dr. Richard Coop.

His students like his enthusiastic simple way to make them understand the flaws of their swing. Claude always points out what you are doing well so you can build on it. He gives you some simple techniques and feel exercises to correct your swing.

Claude has the abilities to communicate directly and concisely. You will realize your full golf potential with his guidance. The power, the consistency and low scores you want is just an email or a phone call away.
